

In the higher professional study programme Informatics and Technologies of Communication can enrol those who:

- a) have passed the Matura examination,
- b) have passed a Vocational Matura examination from any kind of high school programme,
- c) have completed any kind of high school programme of four years duration before 1st June 1995.

If a decision is taken to restrict enrolment, the candidates referred to in Point a) will be selected according to the following criteria:

- Overall success at the Matura Exam (60% of points);
- Overall success in the third and fourth year of the Secondary school (40% of points);

The candidates referred to in Point (b) shall be selected according to the following criteria:

- Overall success at the Vocational Matura Exam (60 % of points);
- Overall success in the third and fourth year of the Secondary school (40% points);

The candidates referred to in Point (c) shall be selected according to the following criteria:

- Overall success at the final exam (60% of points);
- Overall success in the third and fourth year of the Secondary school (40% of points).